

Jane Clark
Madison, WI

Professional: Jane is a graduate of Amherst College and The University of Wisconsin-Madison Law School. Previously Jane was in private practice in Milwaukee, and then Madison, as an attorney focusing on family and children's issues, namely family law, estate planning, and Guardian ad Litem cases. Approximately 3 years ago, Jane joined a private company as Director of Human Resources. In this role, she oversees all of the employment law issues, employee benefits, hiring/firing, and disciplinary issues.

Volunteer: Active as a volunteer on women's, children's, and community issues, she is currently the Chair of Planned Parenthood's Dane County Action Board. She also serves on the Steering Committee of Lt. Governor Lawton's WI Women = Prosperity Initiative, the Alumni Advisory Board for Brookfield Academy, on the Board of Preschool of the Arts, on the Board of Camp Randall Rowing Club, on the Board of The Highlands Neighborhood Association, and on the Development Committee of The Madison Children's Museum. In the past, Jane was involved with the Advisory Board for the Family Law Clinic of the UW Law School, Task Force on Family Violence, WI AIDs Fund, Council for the Spanish Speaking, Legal Association of Women, and Family Services of Milwaukee. Much of the volunteer experience focused on fundraising and program/policy development.

Personal: Jane is married to Chris Clark, UW Men's Rowing Coach, and has two wonderful sons, Jack and Charlie.
